PREFACE.

In bringing the second volume of Gloucester Wills to a conclusion there is but little to be said by way of Preface, as all that was necessary to say about the documents of the Consistory Court of the Bishop of Gloucester appeared in the Preface to Volume I.

The Calendar has now been brought down to the year 1800, after which date it is not proposed to continue the work of calendaring.

Quite recently, however, several volumes of Administration and Acts of Court have been discovered, which the Council propose shall be calendared and, when completed, form a third volume.

These newly found books consist of—

A Volume containing Administrations 1604–1614,
" " " 1626–1628,
" " " 1677–1683,

as well as two volumes of Acts of Court for 1640 onwards.

The first of these is referred to in the Preface of Volume I, but until recently it had been lost sight of for many years. There is a large number of volumes relating to the Bishop's Court which have not yet been examined, and it is not at all improbable that further Testamentary records may be found among them.

Those who have had occasion to search at the Gloucester Probate Registry cannot fail to have noticed the marked improvement in obtaining access to the documents there, which is largely owing to the interest taken in the matter by Mr. F. E. Wallis, the chief clerk, who has numbered, sorted, and flattened most of the documents under his care. This task has involved the sacrifice of much of Mr. Wallis' leisure time, and the thanks of genealogists and searchers are obviously due to him.

E. A. FRY.

CORRECTIONS.

Page 14, 1st col., line 22 from bottom. For Samger read Saniger.

„ 46, 2nd col., line 27. This entry should read—
Baker als. Williams, John, Dymock, ad. 27.

„ 51, 2nd col., line 9 from bottom. For Barker, John, read Parker, John.

„ 198, 2nd col., lines 22 and 23. Bavestone, Abel. This is indexed Bave, Abel, and in the Act it is written Bave, Abel, but in the papers the name is Abel Bave Stone, late of Bitton, yeoman. It seems as if this should be indexed under Stone.

„ 320, 2nd col., line 17 from bottom. Braver, George. This entry is not indexed at all. It is probably Brewer, George.

INDEX LOCORUM.

NOTE.—In this Index the names of Gloucestershire parishes are distinguished by being printed in capital letters ; those of hamlets and other places are given in small letters. As far as possible the parishes in which hamlets are situated are indicated. Out-county places are included in this Index, but for convenience a separate list of them is given at the end.
